

I am an XM radio subscriber, and the main reason that I have turned to XM is because I feel that XM responds to the choices that their audience makes more than commercial radio. My monthly fee goes toward variety and no government restrictions. If the FCC should consider any regulation of XM radio, I believe that what has made our country a great place to live will crumble. Please reject the NAB petition 04-160. Thank you for your time.